

Gathering for Aging

Words of the Day

I am aware of aging when I ...

Chalice Lighting

We light this chalice to shine on our time together. In its light we celebrate the relationships and understanding we are creating in this place and time. May our sharing be deep. (Light chalice)

The Basket

Sharing of Joys and Concerns

Silence, holding ourselves and each other in silent support

Shared Readings

The evening of life brings with it its lamp. Joseph Joubert

We grow neither better nor worse as we grow old, but more like ourselves. May Becker

Wholly unprepared, we embark upon the second half of life ... we take the step into the afternoon of life. Carl Jung

I am not ready to die,
But I am learning to trust death
As I have trusted life.
May Sarton, Gestalt at Sixty

If your mind isn't clouded by unnecessary things, this is the best season of your life. Wu-men

Old age is like flying through a storm. Once you're aboard, there's nothing you can do.
Golda Meir

Each part of life has its own pleasures. Each has its own abundant harvest, to be garnered in season. We may grow old in body, but we need never grow old in mind and spirit. Cicero

When hungry, eat your rice; when tired, close your eyes. Fools may laugh at me, but wise men know what I mean. Lin-Chi

The secret of a good old age is simply an honorable pact with solitude. Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Deep Sharing/Deep Listening

Round 1: Share your reflections on aging and the preparation materials.

Round 2: Share additional thoughts or reflect on what others have shared.

Closing Circle

Extinguishing the Chalice

We extinguish this flame and we remember the warmth of our community, the light of our wisdom, the generosity of our sharing. We keep these in our heart until we meet again.

(Extinguish the chalice.)

The Covenant

I commit myself:

- to come to meetings when I possibly can, knowing that my presence is important to the group
- to let the facilitator know if I will be absent or need to quit
- to share with the facilitator the responsibility for good group process by watching how much time I take to speak and noticing what is going on for others
- to do the reading and thinking about the topic ahead of time
- to not gossip about what is shared in the group, and tell only my own story to others
- to honor the safety of the group by listening to what others share with an open heart
- to refrain from cross-talk, judging, giving advice, or advocating a specific view
- to share as deeply as I can when it is my turn and to stay on the “I-message.”
