YOUTH MINISTRY PROGRAMS

First Unitarian’s Youth Ministry program provides a well-rounded religious education to our youth. While the curriculum varies from year to year, our web of youth ministry balances pastoral care, spiritual development, beloved community, justice making, faith exploration, multi-generational relationships, covenantal leadership, and identity formation.

Mid-High Program (6th-8th grade)

- Sunday Morning Programming - Every morning at 11 am the Mid-High Group meets to explore Unitarian Universalism, ethics, spiritual practices, and how a community functions.

- Coming of Age - Each spring we offer Coming of Age classes to our eighth graders as they prepare for high school and a bigger role in our faith community. Students learn more about Unitarian Universalism and themselves as they prepare “This I Believe” statements and lead a service for the entire congregation.

- Our Whole Lives (OWL) - A nationally acclaimed, lifelong sexuality curriculum developed by the Unitarian Universalist Association in partnership with the United Church of Christ. Trained volunteers teach First Unitarian OWL classes with age-appropriate content for youth.

La Amikoj – High School (9th -12th grade)

- Sunday Morning Programming – Adult youth advisers partner with youth to lead curricula that is relevant to youth and that touches each aspect of the web of youth ministry stated above.

- Youth Cons - Weekend long conferences/events designed for youth. Youth from different UU churches in the Mountain Desert District join to worship, learn and to be together in fellowship.

- Bridging Ceremony - Seniors in high school meet with Ministers and advisers to design a Sunday service that celebrates their entry into young adulthood

- Grill Nights - Informal social gatherings in the summer.

- Service Learning Opportunities - Regular social action is not only a chance to serve the broader community but a chance to learn and reflect on those experiences.
Our Religious Education Vision

Through participating in the Religious Education Program at First Unitarian, children and youth will:

• Develop social skills and connections that will make them a part of this Church community.
• Participate in practical experiences that relate to UU principles, and that will expand into their daily lives.
• Incorporate UU beliefs into their own beliefs that they can articulate.
• Learn about, appreciate, and respect people of other faiths and beliefs.
• Develop a spiritual foundation that will provide perspective throughout their life journey.

Web of Youth Ministry

First Unitarian’s Youth Programs are based on UUA’s Web of Youth Ministry model.

Covenantal Leadership
Youth leadership is a covenantal practice in which youth are safe, recognized and affirmed as full and vital participants in the life of our shared Unitarian Universalist faith community. Advisors encourage youth to take on more responsibility as they grow and develop. The goal is for youth to become empowered and effective leaders through intentional leadership development over time.

Multigenerational Relationships
Multigenerational faith communities have programs that meet both the specific developmental needs of different age groups and bring people together across age groups. Dynamic youth ministry strives to connect youth with people of all ages through inviting them to help with religious education programs, building mentor relationships between youth and adults, forming multigenerational choirs, allowing youth to use their leadership gifts in worship services and workshops, celebrating life milestones such as Coming of Age and bridging into adulthood, and having fun outdoor activities open to all families and ages.

Spiritual Development
This is the intentional cultivation of spirituality through both individual and group spiritual practices. As spiritual beings, youth experience awe, gratitude, wonder, appreciation and “at-one-ness.” Youth ministry should encourage and offer opportunities for engagement in practices that nurture and enliven their spirits.

Beloved Community
Being held in the arms of a beloved community is an essential part of being a religious person of any age. In youth ministry, beloved community has three dimensions: local, Unitarian Universalist, and interfaith. Youth should be grounded in a local community that creates deep, affirming, authentic and long-lasting relationships. Through camps and conferences, youth can connect with the wider Unitarian Universalist faith movement and see the diversity of experiences that exist within Unitarian Universalism. Interfaith community enriches youth ministry and celebrates differing religious perspectives found in the world.

Justice Making
Youth practice answering our faith’s calling to work for justice and to be in solidarity with others who also work for justice in many settings, including in our lives, our local communities, and the wider world. Service trips can help open youth’s eyes to the realities confronting other people and inspire them to work for justice. Organizing a social justice project within the congregation can connect youth to the rest of the congregation and place youth as leaders in the social justice work of the community. Youth can also engage in advocacy and education around social justice issues that are important to them.

Pastoral Care
Like people of all ages, youth have specific pastoral needs that are met in communities where people know how to listen deeply. Everyone works together to create a religious community that provides pastoral care with youth. This includes creating safe congregations, supporting youth who are in crisis, and celebrating their joys and accomplishments. Pastoral care with youth is also strengthened when ministers have a direct relationship with the youth in their congregations.

Faith Exploration
Structured learning environments promote the free and responsible search for truth, meaning and purpose as a part of youth faith development. Faith exploration takes place when youth engage with workshops at camps and conferences, as well as through curricula that challenge youth to look deep and develop their faith. Because the Unitarian Universalist approach to religious education acknowledges that we are all both learners and teachers, when youth are asked to lead or facilitate education programs, it is a learning and leadership development opportunity.

Identity Formation
Dynamic youth ministry supports youth in their journeys to figure out who they are as spiritual beings, relational beings, racial/ethnic and sexual beings, people of faith, justice makers, lifelong learners and leaders, as well as how they fit in multigenerational communities. Youth ministry helps youth develop a healthy identity in these areas and learn to live with integrity so that their Unitarian Universalist faith is inseparable from their identity as a whole person.

COMMUNICATION
Information about RE programs and activities can be found at the Church’s website at http://uuabq.com/religious-education/re-children-and-youth/ as well as through the Church’s weekly e-broadsheet, the monthly Messenger and the RE Department’s three Facebook pages: Mid-high, La Amikoj (High School), and First UU Families

YOUTH ADVISOR POLICY

Approved by RE Council 9/27/15

This policy exists to assist the Youth Program Coordinator to manage the Mid-High and La Amikoj youth programs. The goal of this policy is to maintain a healthy partnership between youth and adults.

Staff Level Policy

1. Youth advisers are managed by the Youth Program Coordinator (YPC).
   a. Advisers should stay in good communication with the YPC and when appropriate inform them of any issues that may arise.
   b. Youth advisers should be selected by the YPC in collaboration with the Director of Religious Education (DRE).
2. Youth advisers can serve Mid-High for no more than three consecutive years and La Amikoj for no more than four consecutive years.
   a. Since youth can only be in these youth groups for three or four years, this insures that these groups never becomes the adult’s group and that power and experience is spread evenly.
3. Youth advisers are there to guide, mentor, and be in partnership with youth and abide by all safe church policies that involve working with youth.
   a. Youth advisers should be discouraged from being advisers if their children are involved in that particular youth group. At this developmental stage, it is healthy for youth to form relationships with adults other than their parents/guardians. Reasonable exceptions should be made.
   b. To encourage a team approach to youth ministry and expose youth to a diversity of adults, youth advisers should commit to being with the youth 2 Sundays a month and never be there every Sunday except in emergency situations.
   c. Youth advisers need to be at least 25 years old.
   d. Youth advisers should be members in good standing of First Unitarian Church of Albuquerque.
   e. Youth advisers are mandatory reporters.
YOUTH PROGRAM COORDINATOR JOB DESCRIPTION
Revised by Mia and approved by RE Council by email 3/20/16

Position objective: The role of the Youth Programs Coordinator is to coordinate, help develop and provide continuity in youth programming. The scope of this position includes a primary focus on participation in junior-high (also called mid-high) and senior-high youth programming.

The YPC supports the purpose and policies of First Unitarian, Albuquerque, and its religious education ministry.

The YPC workweek is 10 hours, including most Sundays.

Qualifications:
- Professional or volunteer experience working with mid-high and high school aged youth in a religious or related setting. Good understanding of youth and adolescent development.
- Strong organizational and communication skills, including the ability to text and utilize social media such as Facebook.
- Must be able to work well in teams and with youth and adults who hold a variety of theological positions. An active member of First Unitarian preferred.
- Valid driver's license, insured, and with a good driving record.
- The ability to be a positive and compassionate role model/mentor who maintains appropriate relationship boundaries.
- Become aware of and be in compliance with the Code of Ethics for adults working with youth in the UUA. Demonstrate a full understanding of the concept of safe church as outlined in First Unitarian's policy manual.
- Education: Bachelor’s degree in education or a related field preferred.
- Must be at least 25 years of age. A background check will be required for employment in this position.
- Experience with special needs youth a plus.

Primary Duties:
- Take advantage of learning materials provided by the UUA on youth ministry, programming, and advising. Ongoing learning and training is an expected part of this position.
- Work with the Director of Religious Education to implement programming which explicitly reflects and includes the eight components of the Web of Youth Ministry: Faith Exploration, Identity Formation, Covenantal Leadership, Multigenerational Relationships, Spiritual Development, Beloved Community, Justice Making, and Pastoral Care.
- Maintain close communication and collaboration with the DRE, including regular updates on events, classes, volunteers, and youth, and communication about any program needs.
• Schedule and attend regular meetings with Youth Advisors, and support them with ongoing training in goal setting, content development, and team development, ideally once per month.
• Schedule weekly advisors for senior-high and mid-high groups. Maintain the schedule two months in advance, including advisors for each meeting, topics, and activities, and other information as appropriate. Distribute schedule.
• Assist with recruitment of volunteers and advisors.
• Provide a report monthly, and attend R.E. Council meetings when requested by the Council.
• Coordinate with staff and other groups within the church to facilitate the involvement of youth in the larger church community.
• Support the visibility of youth programming, and its vision and direction, in the congregation.
• Have conversations on a regular basis with youth, parents, and advisors that keep communication lines open.
• Support and participate in the 8th grade Coming of Age program and the 12th grade Bridging program each spring.
• Maintain an awareness of and plan and participate in youth community-building events such as Grill Nights, Halloween Dance, and overnights, and in programmatic events such as the LGBTQ Parade, MLK Parade, and other social justice activities.
• Maintain awareness of district and cluster events and conferences, publicizing as needed. Assist with applications for financial aid for these events when warranted. Participate as a sponsor or chaperone when reasonable/possible. Attend at least one youth con annually with youth group. (Overnights are compensated with a stipend.)

Additional Administrative Duties:
• Help to organize and facilitate necessary registration/attendance forms and other paperwork in partnership with the R. E. Administrative Assistant and the DRE.
• Participate in monthly First Unitarian staff meetings and the annual staff retreat.
• Working with other R. E. staff, help coordinate Our Whole Lives (OWL) programming to insure that teen classes are offered.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICIES (6.04)
Board approved January 17, 2017

These Board policies are created to address the special level of care and protection of children participating on our religious education programs, especially from sexual abuse from adults staffing and volunteering in our programs. With the exception of policies #1 and #2, these policies apply only to Religious Education programs. Children and youth participating in general programs such as worship or classes can only count on the judgment and goodwill of the congregation and the caution of their parents.
1. General Child and Youth Safety Policy (applies church-wide)

No adult shall engage in sexual, sexualized, seductive or erotic behavior with children or youth under age 18. Neither shall they harass or engage in behavior with children or youth that constitutes verbal, emotional, or physical abuse. Anyone witnessing or hearing about such behavior should report it to one of the following leaders. Inappropriate activity by the senior minister should be reported to the Board President. The senior minister is to receive reports of inappropriate activity by other ministers or church employees. The DRE is to be the recipient of reports about volunteers. And, inappropriate activity by other adults may be reported to any minister.

2. Relationships between children and adults who are not staff or RE volunteers

It is our expectation that all adult-child interactions (i.e. at coffee hour) will take place in the full view of other adults, and with the knowledge and consent of the child’s parents. Anyone witnessing or hearing about an uncomfortable interaction between an adult and a child (an adult focusing on a child, luring them away from the group, or otherwise making the child uncomfortable) should take whatever steps they think necessary to keep the child safe and inform one of the ministers of the problem.

The ministers, in consultation with each other, have the authority to warn the offending adult that they are making children uncomfortable, inform them that child safety is a cherished value here, and ask them to leave the property if they believe it necessary to protect our children. This request must be honored but the offender may appeal the decision to the congregation’s Healthy Community Committee.

3. Child and Youth Safety in the RE Program

The RE Program consists of all programs offered for children and families with children which are the responsibility of the RE Director. Examples of these include but are not limited to Sunday School, Camp, children and youth choirs, Youth Groups, and travel to District and UUA activities for youth which have been arranged for by the church, OWL and Coming of Age classes, social activities arranged by the RE Staff, and the child-care component of church events. “RE Programs” do not include primarily social groups of families or friendships, even if they begin at First Unitarian, however the general child safety policies #1 and #2 above do apply to those kinds of events.

The Board enjoins the staff to manage the RE program in a way that minimizes the possibility of any child experiencing abuse at the hands of their teachers, leaders, and advisors, or which exposes children or youth to unsafe conditions. In particular:

1) All volunteers working regularly with children will be ongoing participants in the life of the congregation and known to the DRE. The DRE, in conjunction with one of the ministers, may ask any volunteer to withdraw from volunteering if they deem it advisable for the safety of children or the good of the program. There is no appeal for this decision.

2) Anyone who has volunteered more than twice in our program is a “Regular Volunteer”. Regular Volunteers and all Child Care staff will undergo a criminal background check at the congregation’s expense. Issues arising from this background check will be discussed between DRE and one of the ministers and a decision about their volunteering conveyed to the volunteer.

3) All persons asked to drive children or youth as a part of our program must go through a motor vehicle record check. Issues arising from this background check will be discussed between DRE and one of the ministers and a decision about their volunteering conveyed to the volunteer.

4) With the three exceptions noted below, there will always be at least two persons who are likely and able to report on each other’s’ behavior working together with children at all times, staying within each other’s sight or hearing whenever they are interacting with children. The RE Staff will create a detailed set of enforceable policies on this matter.

   i) The ministers may meet with children or youth alone, when absolutely necessary to care for them. Preferably this meeting will take place in a public place or during office hours. The other minister should be informed of such meetings.

   ii) One adult may drive teens to events, but there must be more than one teen in the vehicle and teens and adult should have signed a covenant which acknowledges that sex or sexualized behavior between adults and youth is prohibited.

   iii) In an emergency situation, one adult may have to leave another adult alone with a child who cannot be moved to procure help. These situations should be as brief as possible, rare, and reported in full to the DRE

4. Staff/volunteer Ratios for child safety and other rules

The RE program will make every attempt to maintain safe conditions and staff and volunteer ratios according to best practices for children’s programs.

At least one parent or guardian must remain on campus while their child is being cared for except in the case of special programs for which parents have left specific contact information and agree to remain contactable during the time their child is in our care.
5. Childcare (outside of Sunday morning)

1. All persons offering childcare to children on church property must be on the church’s childcare staff, with the exception of the caregiver of a child, who is under the direction of the child’s parent.

2. All children not in supervised programs are the responsibility of their parents and may be asked by staff to remain in their parent’s vicinity.

6. Reporting Requirement

State Law requires some professionals, including church staff, and requests that any adult immediately report to Child Protective Services any suspicions or knowledge that a child has been the victim of sexual abuse, physical abuse, or neglect, (at church or elsewhere). In addition to making this official report, church staff are required and church volunteers are requested to inform one of the ministers of their report. (Unless the suspected perpetrator is one of the ministers, in which case the president of the board should be informed.) If there is cause to believe that a staff person or volunteer in the RE program is a perpetrator of abuse, the DRE shall be notified.

OVERNIGHTS

First Unitarian often hosts overnight programs for children and youth on our campus. The Church’s Child Protection Policy must be followed.

1. There must be three adults present including at least 1 male and 1 female.

2. If more than 21 youth are present, an additional adult is required. The ratio is to be no more than 7 youth/adult.

3. Youth should RSVP so that the required number of chaperones will be present.

4. The Overnight Checklist must be used to ensure that staff communication and planning has taken place. In addition, parents must be informed who the chaperones will be as well as the agenda.

5. Chaperone contact info will be shared with parents of youth attending overnight.

6. Setting up overnights should be a team effort by advisors and parents with input from staff.

The Overnight Checklist must be used to ensure that staff communication and planning has taken place. In addition, parents must be informed who the chaperones will be as well as the agenda. Chaperone contact info will be shared with parents of youth attending overnight. Setting up overnights should be a team effort by advisors and parents with input from staff.

First Unitarian also coordinate programs in which youth participate in conferences or retreats at other facilities. First Unitarian or other churches and organizations may organize these conferences or retreats. District Cons will use its adult/youth ratios for these events.

After the activity is completed, participants will bring the experience back to the church community in some form, such as a presentation to the congregation or La Amikoj group or leadership activity, among other possibilities.

For retreats, conferences or programs that involve an overnight stay, in order to participate all children and youth must have a signed permission slip from their parents. First Unitarian or the organizing groups must provide the permission slip. In addition, each child or youth must review and sign a behavior agreement, which among other things prohibits sexual activity and the use of drugs or alcohol during the entire overnight program.

This checklist is to be used by the leaders when planning for an overnight event.
