

A Special Invitation to 8th-grade Students from First Unitarian Church of Albuquerque

On Sunday, January 21, 2018, the 2018 Coming of Age class will hold its first meeting, and you need to be there! You are invited to join us as we explore what it means to be a spiritual adult in a UU community. We will be sharing games, adventure experiences, discussion, and a service project. The climax will be a church service on April 29th, 2018, delivered by you!

The class will be led by Meara Christopher and Meghan Shattuck, with occasional special guests. We will start promptly at 9:30 each morning (opposite the 1st service) in the La Amikoj room and will be done by 10:45.

It's time to find out if this "church thing" is for you or not. Why are all of those people in that big room across the patio on Sundays and what are they really doing? Finally, the deepest, darkest mysteries of our chosen faith will be revealed to you! Don't miss out!

Tell your parents that there is a $50 fee to help cover the costs of food and adventure. Scholarship help is available through the R. E. office.

Hurry and drop off the registration form NOW. Don't wait! See you on January 21st (unless you forget to register)!

Meara and Meghan

PS. Tell your parents that Coming of Age class is an invaluable resource to help you explore your nascent (make sure you use the word "nascent") spirituality. Don't mention too much about the fun!
